School of Medicine Mentoring Award

This award recognizes School of Medicine faculty who have demonstrated outstanding mentoring in the domains of education, service, and/or research to trainees or early career faculty during the past year. Up to three awards will be given.

Deadline: Nominations will be accepted through July 13, 2018.

Eligibility: Faculty within the Emory University School of Medicine (EUSOM) who are currently mentoring trainees or early career faculty. Those who have received this award in the past 3 years are not eligible. View previous award winners online.

Nominations: Mentors must be nominated by a current trainee or faculty mentee. A concise narrative (500 words or less) describing the outstanding mentoring received should be included in the nomination. Up to two additional letters (500 words or less) from other current or previous mentees addressing the following mentoring criteria are encouraged:

Examples:

- Education – describe how the mentor helped the mentee achieve excellence in teaching (e.g., classroom, bedside, and/or laboratory teaching/supervising; teaching awards; recommendations from trainees)
- Service – describe how the mentor supported the mentee in engaging in service on intramural and extramural committees, community endeavors volunteer/pro bono work, clinical directorship roles, etc.
- Research – describe how the mentor helped the mentee with presentations and publications; federal, industry-sponsored, or investigator-initiated grants awarded to mentees

Submission: must be emailed to the SOM Office of Faculty Development and include the below:

- Nominating letter (500 words or less)
- Optional materials: Up to two additional letters of support (500 words or less) from previous or current mentees

Decision: Will be made by the School of Medicine Recognitions Committee and approved by the Dean.

Award: Recipients of the Emory School of Medicine Mentoring Award will be honored during the Celebration of Faculty Excellence on October 11, 2018.
