School of Medicine Mentoring Award

This award recognizes School of Medicine faculty who have demonstrated outstanding mentoring in the domains of education, service, and/or research to trainees or early career faculty during the past year. Up to three awards will be given.

Deadline: Nominations will be accepted through June 16, 2017.

Eligibility: Faculty within the School of Medicine of Emory University who are currently mentoring trainees or early career faculty. Those who have received this award in the past 3 years are not eligible.

Nominations: Mentors must be nominated by a current trainee or faculty mentee. A concise, one page narrative (500 words or less) describing the outstanding mentoring received should be included in the nomination. Up to two additional letters (500 words or less) from other current or previous mentees addressing the following mentoring criteria are encouraged:

Examples:
- Education – describe how the mentor helped the mentee achieve excellence in teaching (e.g. classroom, bedside, and/or laboratory teaching/supervising; teaching awards; recommendations from trainees)
- Service – describe how the mentor supported the mentee in engaging in service on intramural and extramural committees, community endeavors volunteer/pro bono work, clinical directorship roles, etc.
- Research – describe how the mentor helped the mentee with presentations and publications; federal, industry-sponsored, or investigator-initiated grants awarded to mentees

Submission: must be emailed to the SOM Office of Faculty Development and include the below:

- One page nominating letter (500 words or less)
- Up to two additional letters of support from previous or current mentees also may be submitted (500 words or less)

Decision: Will be made by the School of Medicine Recognitions Committee and approved by the Dean.

Award: Recipients of the Emory Medicine Mentoring Award will be honored during the Celebration of Faculty Excellence on October 18, 2017.
