

For Medical Students Graduating in the Classes of 2023 and 2024

- ✓ Class of 2023,
submit your application by
March 15, 2022
- ✓ Class of 2024,
submit your application by
May 30, 2022

Join MUSE

MENTORING FOR UNDER-REPRESENTED
STUDENTS IN EMERGENCY MEDICINE

The new longitudinal mentoring program for rising clinical year medical students from under-represented in medicine groups who have an interest in pursuing an Emergency Medicine career. Apply now and join MUSE!

EMORY
UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Department of Emergency Medicine

PROGRAM OPPORTUNITIES

- Longitudinal mentorship including 1-2 month or 6-week clerkship experience
- Longitudinal mentorship with a faculty member and a resident
- End of rotation in-person interview with residency leadership and MUSE faculty
- Interview- virtual; standard interview day to be scheduled via Interview Broker after ERAS application to the program
- Stipend: up to $2000 stipend; living expenses for the month of clerkship experience
- Sponsored mentorship activities with mentors (meals covered)

APPLY TODAY

- Submit your application to muse@emory.edu by March 15 for the Class of 2023 and May 30 for the Class of 2024
- Rotation Application through VSLO (formerly VSAS) at the appropriate time
- Letter of interest/personal statement (1 page maximum) addressing:
 - Your interest in Emergency Medicine
 - Your interest in Emory University
 - What do you hope to gain from this experience? What are your personal goals and objectives for this mentorship program?
 - Why do you need the mentorship of the program above what is offered from your medical school?
- CV
- Letter from Clinical Affairs Dean or designee confirming the student is in good standing
- Incomplete applications will not be considered

Questions? Please reach out to Dr. Maurice Selby, MUSE Program Director, Dr. Michelle Lall or Dr. Anika Backster via email at muse@emory.edu