Happy Wednesday and welcome to the Wellness Wednesday Newsletter. This monthly newsletter will serve as a guide to self-care, comfort and happiness in this challenging time. Please click the links for resources and information. Also, please submit your concerns and ideas to: The Wellness Committee

EMORY CARES

Emory Cares offers service projects all month. Mark your calendars for future service periods during MLK Week (January 18 – 22, 2021) and National Volunteer Week (April 18 – 24, 2021). Please see below:

- Click this list to filter through a variety of service projects this fall.
- Emory Cares is a year-round partner with Hands on Atlanta.

EMORY UPDATES

Review the Election Well-Being Toolkit

Support Emory student food security by donating here.

Visit the Employee Together Fund to donate or receive in times of need.

COVID Testing

- Asymptomatic COVID testing for Faculty and Staff will be done with saliva soon.
- If you have COVID symptoms call the Emory Healthcare Information and Nurses Line at (404) 71-COVID (26843)
- Additional Non-Emory testing sites can be found here: Core Response, CVS.

GA VOTING DETAILS

- January 5, 2021 – US Senate run-off election
- December 7 – Deadline to register to vote if you are 18 years old by Election Day

Vote 3 Ways

1. Absentee ballot – request here
2. Early Voting starts December 14 – locations by county are listed here
3. Election Day – precinct locations here; Emory’s voting policy allows 4 hours of time, but advance notice is needed.

HOLIDAY SAFETY

- Wear a mask, wash your hands, remain outdoors and keep 6 feet apart.
- These organizations have created very useful holiday gathering guidelines:
  - CDC
  - Children’s Minnesota
  - John’s Hopkins
  - Mayo Clinic

KUDOS!!!

The GYN/OB Department hosted the first all-virtual residency interview and both the students and faculty alike were extremely pleased with the experience.

Submit kudos to members of the GYN/OB Department here
FRONTLINE MOMENTS

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!