presented by Dr. Carolyn Meltzer at 12pm.

Friday, March 12

The Latino Medical Student Association (LMSA) from Emory School of Medicine is hosting a Cha Cha Cha Dance Class Fundraiser at 7pm. This event benefits Los Vecinos de Buford Highway, a local non-profit organization with a mission to cultivate community, magnify the voices of residents, and grow future leaders in the Buford Highway neighborhoods of Atlanta.

Tuesday, March 23

The Office of Faculty Academic Advancement, Leadership and Inclusion will host Bold Leaders Series: The Resilient Leader at 12pm. Chip Souba, Jr, MD, MBA, ScD, Professor of Surgery, Emeritus Dean, The Audrey and Theodor Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth is the featured speaker and will discuss challenging our taken-for-granted leadership worldviews and mindsets.

Friday, March 26

The Rollins School of Public Health and the School of Medicine will host Reproductive Justice is a Human Right at 12pm. Loretta Ross, an award-winning, nationally-recognized expert on racial justice, women's rights, and human rights is the featured speaker. Her work emphasizes the intersectionality of social justice issues and how the application of an intersectional lens can fuel transformational change.

We invite you to visit the Emory Collective and SOM DEI Calendar of Events for additional upcoming DEI programs and review resources to support the professional development of women on the EAWiMS and Center for Women websites.

Phase 2 of our all-gender restrooms project is underway. The restrooms that have been updated are as follows:
