

The Council on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion of the Emory University Department of Medicine invites fourth-year medical students from groups underrepresented in medicine, including but not limited to underrepresented minorities and individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds to apply for our Emory University Department of Medicine #RYSE Virtual Visiting Clerkship Program. This clerkship, which specifically targets students who intend to apply to and pursue a career in Internal Medicine (or an IM subspecialty), exposes students to a thriving academic medical center and careers in Medicine. Accepted students will receive:

- A $250 stipend upon successful completion of the virtual experience
- Faculty mentorship
- Exposure to educational activities at Emory in the Department of Medicine
- Virtual exposure to clinical sites at Emory
- Opportunities to meet with residency leaders in the J. Willis Hurst Internal Medicine Residency
- Coaching for interview season

Application requirements and eligibility:

- Current enrollment at an accredited US Medical School
- Anticipated graduation of Spring 2025
- Self-identify on ERAS as a member of a group underrepresented in medicine as defined by AAMC
- Completion of attached application
- Applying to Internal Medicine Residency Programs
- Letter of support
- Current CV or resume
- Official USMLE or COMLEX transcript
