DOM Seeks Candidates for Associate Vice Chair of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

The Associate Vice Chair will report to the Vice Chair of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion and work closely with departmental leadership, with a specific focus on developing and sustaining partnerships with residency and fellowship program administration. More details here. The application deadline is Wednesday, November 22, 2023.

Kudos and Congratulations!

Congratulations and best wishes to Dr. Natasha Travis on her October wedding!

Evidence of our Excellence!

Congratulations to GIM Grady faculty member, Bhavin Adhyaru, MD, for receiving the Mark Silverman Award from the American College of Physicians (ACP). This award serves to recognize the nurturing attitude of a physician who has not only demonstrated excellence in bedside skills and teaching but has served as an inspiration for younger physicians to advance their knowledge and training in medicine as well as their involvement in the Georgia Chapter of the ACP.

Congratulations to GIM Grady faculty member Danielle Jones, MD for receiving the 2024 APDIM Distinguished University Associate Program Director/Core Faculty Award from the Alliance for Academic Internal Medicine. This award honors those medical educators who have made a significant institutional, regional and/or national contribution based on their work as educators in residency training programs.

Congratulations to Ms. Chloe Jordan, 2023 Trans Life Pioneer of Community!

Ms. Chloe Jordan, Manager of Programs and Research for GIM, has been awarded the 2023 Trans Life Award as the Pioneer of Community. The Trans Life Awards are presented to individuals who have significantly contributed to the mission, advocacy, well-being, and development of the Atlanta Transgender and Non-Binary Communities. Chloe is pictured below, receiving her award.

Grady and Midtown Excel at Racial Inclusion

In a newly released index, Grady ranks #8 and Emory Midtown ranks #10 in the country for success in serving people of color in their communities.

The Lown Institute Hospitals Index for Social Responsibility is the first rankings program to examine the racial inclusivity of America's hospitals. This is the fourth year racial inclusivity results have been released and the first time that data from Medicare Advantage has been included along with traditional Medicare claims. (press release | methodology). To create the rankings, the Institute assessed how well the demographics of a hospital's Medicare patients matched the demographics of the hospital's surrounding communities.

November is Diabetes Awareness Month

An invitation from Drs. Schneider and to join them in advocacy!

GIM Grady faculty Dr. Jason Schneider and Dr. Maura George are pictured below at the Medical Association of Georgia's House of Delegates in beautiful Savannah voting on the organization's policy to influence state law. Please join them next year in October! Meet a lot of physicians from Atlanta and around the state, enjoy a fun weekend, and make sure GA physicians advocate for issues that positively impact our patients!

Dr. Henry Presents on Advocacy

Grady GIM faculty Dr. Tracey Henry presented "Physician's Role in Countering Misinformation through Advocacy and Action" at Emory DOM Grand Rounds on October 19, 2023. If you missed it, you can access recordings of DOM Grand Rounds here.

Dr. Henry is pictured below presenting "The Power of Purple: ACP Advocacy Shines During Challenging Times" at the Georgia American College of Physicians Chapter Meeting.

The research corner is a space to share research-related opportunities, tips, and more. Please email Dr. Saria Hassan with suggestions!

GIM-Wide Monthly Research Meeting Recap and Preview

Thanks to all who attended our inaugural meeting. It was wonderful to see folks from across our sections. Slides and recordings from the sessions will be archived and available soon.

There was some confusion around research exempt and non-exempt studies in Room 1 and we will be inviting the IRB folks back to help clarify things. In the meantime, please reach out with any questions, and Chloe and I will try to direct you. I know some of you also had difficulty joining through the link. An updated calendar invite was sent out to avoid future confusion and the new link also appears below.

Next Meeting: Thursday, November 19th at 12:30pm. <https://zoom.us/j/94979572788?pwd=a0hwNGJWeFhrVHVLMmYrUIRQY1hxQT09>

Presentation: Integrating Quality Improvement with Resident Education: a multi-disciplinary diabetes clinic in primary care (Midtown: Britt Marshall, Dylan Stentiford, Karlene Wortham)

Skill Building: SlicerDicer in EPIC

Take it to the Finish Line!

Remember that paper that has just been sitting there, waiting for someone to take it to the finish line? This initiative offers opportunities for new faculty to get experience writing papers and collaborating with others, and established faculty get to finally publish that paper that has been collecting dust on the virtual shelf.

- If you have a paper you'd like to add to the "Take it to the Finish Line" repository please email saria.hassan@emory.edu.
- If you are a new faculty member looking for manuscript writing experience and would like to collaborate email saria.hassan@emory.edu.

We will pair up faculty thereafter.
