

“The Nia Project played a significant role in shaping my trajectory as a scholar and practitioner. Nia does an amazing job of integrating trainees into the heart of research and demonstrating the inextricable link between scholarship and practice. Nia is a wonderful environment to grow as a clinical psychologist interested in evidence-based approaches to interventions. I am thankful for my training and experience at Nia and its role in helping me become the professor and psychologist I am today.”

-Janelle S. Peifer, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor of Psychology
Agnes Scott College